FRIPP ISLAND FAQS

What's the purpose of Club Guest Cards?

- Club Guest Cards (think of them like a temporary membership to a private club) is required for regularly scheduled resort activities NOT listed on the PTP schedule. Each guest over the age of 13 needs a Guest Card for that additional access. If you rent through the Resort, your rental includes a card for each guest staying in the home.

Who do we call with questions if we're renting a property through Fripp Island Resort?

- Please call Group Sales at (843) 838-1507 with any questions prior to your arrival. Once you're on the island, please call Guest Services at (843) 838-1558.

We're not staying with the resort. Do we need a vehicle gate pass to access the island?

- You do NOT need a gate pass to access the island during Pledge the Pink weekend if you are participating in the event. Flockstars are welcome all weekend!

Where can we grab a bite to eat on Fripp Island?

- Nightly catered dinners for flockstars at the Creek House (see PTP schedule for details)
- Bonito Boathouse: Open nightly 5:30pm to 9pm, overlooking Fripp Island Marina
- The Food Court: Open daily, 11am to 8pm, located at the Beach Club
- Ocean Point Grille: Open daily, 7:30am to 4:30pm

What are our options for DIY dining?

- Family Dinners
- On Fripp Island, the Marina Store and Springtide Market are stocked with the essentials
- Pro tip: Plan to buy groceries in Beaufort on the way to Fripp.
 - Publix (61 Lady's Island Drive, Beaufort)
 - Food Lion (10 Sam's Point Road, Beaufort)
 - Walmart – Online Order with Free Pick-up (265 Sea Island Parkway, Beaufort)

Are there any restaurants we can visit off the island?

- St. Helena Island: Johnson Creek Tavern (6 miles) and Foolish Frog (15 miles)
- Downtown Beaufort: Breakwater Restaurant, Wren, Hearth Wood Fired Pizza, Q on Bay, Saltus River Grill, Luther's, Panini's Cafe, Plums (all on Bay Street – 21 miles)

see you

at the finish line!
